WILSON VETOES KNOX RESOLUTION $500,000 IS RAISED IN COMMUNITY AFTER TWO DAYS OF EFFORT

KNOX PEACE PLAN IS INCONSISTENT WITH U. S. DIGNITY

PRESIDENT HOLDS THAT PEACE RESOLUTION SHOWS DESIRE TO LIVE ISOLATED LIFE.

SURRENDERS U. S. RIGHTS

Resolution Makes No Reference to Purpose for Which United States Entered War, Wilson Tells Congress in Veto Message.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—President Wilson today vetoed the Knox peace resolution declaring an end to the war between the United States and Germany and Austria-Hungary.

The resolution, he declared, "is in effect a complete surrender of the rights of the United States so far as the German government is concerned."

By the rejection of the treaty of Versailles, Wilson said, "by its methods we have in effect declared that we wish to draw apart and pursue objects and interests of our own unhampered by any connections of interest or of purpose with other governments, and peoples."

Wilson bitterly condemned the resolution, declaring it said nothing about the purpose for which we entered the war. He listed among these: Freedom of the seas, reduction of armaments, vindication of the rights of Belgium, the righting of wrongs to France, release of Christians under Turkish rule, and Polish outrages.

"Such a peace with Germany—a peace in which none of the essential interests which we had at heart when we entered the war, is safeguarded—is, or ought to be, inconceivable, is inconsistent with the dignity of the United States, with the rights and liberties of our citizens and with the very fundamental conditions of civilization."

Immediately after the president's message was read, Chairman Porter, foreign affairs committee moved to postpone action. This was carried over the objections by the democrats.

Indications, based upon the vote by which the resolution passed the house, are that the republicans will be unable to obtain two-thirds majority necessary to over-ride the veto.

LIVING EXPENSES EXCEED INCOMES

TRAINMEN TELL LABOR BOARD THAT THEY CANNOT EXIST ON SALARIES THEY RECEIVE NOW

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Twelve pairs of shoes per year and $100 worth of uniforms, rip a railroad pay check to shreds, trainmen told the United States labor board here today.

Combating the claims of railroad owners that the wage demands of trainmen are "unfair and excessive," representatives of the B. of R. T. presented column after column of price and wage comparisons.

E. N. Doak, vice president of the Brotherhood said a trainman in Livingston, Mont., has expenses exceeding his pay by $17 per week. Another trainman in Portland, Maine, he said, had approximately the same balance sheet.

Hotel bills and meals at the end of a run are a source of great expense, Doak said. The average, he said, was $3.75 per run for such costs. This left a passenger trainman with $65 for household expenses at the end of a month, Doak said.

S. E. Eberling, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America, made a particular fight for retention of differentials. Pay rates in the east and west differ, the dividing point being Denver, Co. Eberling also fought for the Sunday and holiday overtime demand, asserting it is no more than fair to recognize the six day week.

Text Of Wilson's Message Vetoing Peace Resolution

Its United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—The text of President Wilson's message vetoing the Knox peace resolution follows:
"I return, herewith, without my signature, house joint resolution 327, intended to repeal the joint resolution of April sixth, 1917, declaring a state of war to exist between the United States and Germany, and the joint resolution of December 7, 1917, declaring a state of war to exist between the United States and the Austro-Hungarian government and to declare a state of peace. I have not felt at liberty to sign this joint resolution because I can not bring myself to become a party to an action which would place ineffaceable stain upon the gallantry and honor of the United States.

"The resolution seeks to establish peace with the German Empire without exacting from the German government any action by way of settling right the infinite wrongs which it did to the peoples whom it attacked and whom we professed it our purpose to assist when we entered the war. Have we sacrificed the lives of more than 100,000 Americans and ruined the lives of thousands of others and brought upon thousands of American families an unhappiness that can never end for purposes which we do not now care to state or take further steps to attain? The attainment of these purposes is provided for in the treaty of Versailles by terms deemed adequate by the leading statesmen and experts of all the great peoples who were associated in the war against Germany. Do we now not care to join in the effort to secure them?

"We entered the war most reluctantly. Our people were profoundly disinclined to take part in a European war and at last did so, only because they became convinced that it could not in truth be regarded as only a European war, but must be regarded as a war in which civilization itself was involved and human rights of every kind, as against a bellicose government. Moreover, when we entered the war, we set forth very definitely the purposes for which we entered, partly because we did not wish to be considered as merely taking part in a European contest.

"This joint resolution which I return does not seek to accept any of these objects, but in effect makes a complete surrender of the rights of the United States so far as the German government is concerned. A treaty of

U. S. OWNERSHIP OF RAILS AND TAX LAWS FLAYED BY PALMER

CANDIDATE FOR U. S. PRESIDENT TELLS FARMERS HOW HE FEELS ON BIG NATIONAL QUESTIONS

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C.—In a letter replying to twelve questions propounded by the National Board of Farm Organizations, Attorney General Palmer, candidate for the democratic nomination for president, today outlined several policies. He declared for:

Strict government regulation of exchanges which deal in foodstuffs and further development of the rural route service to bring producer and consumer closer together; elimination of excess profit taxes; higher taxes on incomes from investments and declared against government ownership of railroads.

"Private ownership and management under strict government supervision with facilities for prompt adjustment of all disputes arising out of demands of employees, shippers or the public, will give the best transportation to the country," said Palmer.

Urging revision of tax laws, Palmer said:
"They were devised for an existing war emergency and not for the peacetime pay-day. The excess profits tax, the cause for a considerable part of the high prices now prevailing, should be repealed as a war measure whose usefulness is outgrown."

Palmer declared for licensing of all corporations manufacturing and distributing necessary commodities to protect the public against "unreasonable prices and assure to producers a fair price for products which they raise."

WOOD AND LOWDEN BATTLE FOR 138 CONTESTED SEATS

CREDENTIALS OF DELEGATES TO CHICAGO CONVENTION TO BE PROBED BEGINNING MONDAY

M'ADOO IS STILL GAINING

Democrats Are Still Selecting Delegates to San Francisco Convention—No Chance for Decision on First Ballots

(By Harold D. Jacobs)
By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago. Interest in the forthcoming republican convention centered today in the contests for delegates scheduled to be taken up Monday by the sub-committee of the national committee.

Indications were there would be 28 contests, mostly from southern states and involving principally the audiences of Major General Leonard Wood and Governor F. O. Lowden. A few seats will be contested by Senator Hiram Johnson.

The sub-committee will collect all data, classify it and submit its findings to the credentials committee. Frank Hitchcock is expected to look out for Wood's interests in the contest hearings, while Angus McSweeney will handle Johnson's affairs.

Lowden's representative had not been chosen today.

Despite the importance of these contests, there seems to be not even the remotest possibility of their winning a decision on the first ballot or even should they all be awarded to one man.

With the republican pre-convention campaign completed, the apportionment of instructed delegates conceding West Virginia's sixteen to Senator Howard Sutherland, incomplete returns would be as follows:

Wood, 131; Johnson, 113; Lowden, 32; Senator W. G. Harding, 30; Sutherland, 16; Senator Miles Pindexter, 14.

Granting authentic claims to uninstructed delegates, the standing would be:

Wood, 258; Lowden, 166; Johnson, 162; Nicholas Murray Butler, 88; Governor William C. Sprout, 76; Harding, 48; Governor Calvin Coolidge, 29; Sutherland, 16; Pindexter, 14; Judge J. C. Pritchard, 5.

Democrats Still Busy
Meanwhile, the democrats in nine states and two territorial possessions are yet to choose their representatives at the San Francisco convention. Apportionment of instructed delegates is as inconclusive as ever, the standing to date being:

Governor James M. Cox, 74; Governor Edward L. Edwards, 28; Senator Carter Glass, 24; Senator Robert Owen, 20; Senator Gilbert Hitchcock, 16; William Jennings Bryan, 10; James W. Gerard, 10; William G. McAdoo, 10.

McAdoo is Gaining
McAdoo continues to gain in uninstructed delegates, the standing of the democratic candidates, on the basis of both instructed and uninstructed delegates, being:

McAdoo, 268; Cox, 188; Edwards, 120; Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, 76; Calum Clark, 36; Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall, 30; Secretary of Agriculture E. T. Meredith, 26; Glass, 24; Senator S. F. Simmons, 24; Owen, 20; Bryan, 18; Hitchcock, 16; Cloner S. Cummings, 12; Gerard, 10.

There will be a surcease in selection of democratic delegates until next week, when Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico hold state conventions. A total of 44 delegates is expected. The last scheduled state convention is that of Mississippi June 16, when 20 delegates will be chosen.

BUSINESS IMPROVES AS MARK VALUE RISES

By United Press Leased Wire
Berlin.—Owing to the spectacular rise in the value of the mark, Germany soon may be able to purchase raw materials on the markets of the world, with which to resume her crippled manufacturing industries.

Germany's import trade recently reached a point almost of stagnation. The turn for the better has come, in the belief of both manufacturers and financiers here.

The sensational rise in the value of the German mark was coincident with the fall in prices throughout the world.

M'ADOO BOOM IS UNDERWAY BUT HE HAS NO EXPENSES

SENATE COMMITTEE TOLD THAT FORMER TREASURY HEAD HAS NO POLITICAL ORGANIZATION

REVIEW WOOD CAMPAIGNS

Former Campaign Manager Avers Dan Hanna Agreed to Raise $500,000 For Wood—Hurdling Expenses Total About $107,000

By United Press Leased Wire
A presidential campaign for William G. McAdoo was formally launched at a meeting of McAdoo's friends here last night, the Rev. Dr. Burris Jenkins, Kansas City, Mo., told the senate campaign expenditures investigating committee today.

Dr. Jenkins said those who attended last night's meeting besides himself were Jonette Shouz, assistant secretary of the treasury; Daniel Roper, former internal revenue collector; Frank Wilson, director of publicity in Liberty loan campaigns; and Robert Woolley, member of the interstate commerce commission.

Dr. Jenkins said he had been requested to place McAdoo's name in nomination at San Francisco. He declared no money had been spent to boom McAdoo, that no funds are being raised and that there is no McAdoo organization.

Nicholas Murray Butler's campaign fund totaled $40,550, Judge John R. Davis, of the municipal court of New York, Butler's manager, told the committee. Only $34,730 has been spent in informing the public about Dr. Butler as a candidate for the republican nomination, Davis said.

Answering hypothetical questions Davis said he was opposed to contributions of $500,000 from one man in the interest of any candidate.

T. S. Darst, General Wood's campaign manager, said he got $6,500 in contributions and spent $4,436 on the primary campaign in his state.

Harding Spent $107,000
Harry M. Daugherty, Senator Harding's manager, submitted a detailed statement showing contributions and expenditures in the national Harding campaign. It showed contributions of $113,095.50 and expenses of $107,709.86.

"There is perhaps connected with the campaign expenditures in Ohio something over $35,000," Daugherty said.

Indiana is a neighbor state and there were many invitations for Senator Harding to present his candidacy there.

In all other states Harding kept out of the primaries because of the expense, Daugherty said.

Wood In Ohio
Senator Reed tried to get from Daugherty some information about the Wood campaign in Ohio.

"I don't know anything definite, except that General Wood's friends conducted quite a campaign and I suppose it was pretty expensive."

John T. King, a republican national committeeman from Connecticut and formerly Wood manager, told the committee that he took charge of the Wood movement at General Wood's request and raised about $91,000 of which $29,000 was contributed and $50,000 on his own note.

WANT RULES SUSPENDED TO AID BONUS MEASURE

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—In the hope of bringing the soldier bonus bill to a vote in the house before the proposed recess or adjournment of congress, the house rules committee today by a vote of five to four recommended the suspension of the rules for six days beginning Saturday.

If the suspension is agreed to by the house, the bonus or any other bill can be called up at any time during the six days, debated for forty minutes after which a final vote would be taken.

Under these circumstances a bill must have two-thirds majority to pass.

Wilson Plea For Mandate Is Rejected

Foreign Relations Committee Flatly Refuses America's Request That Armenia Assume Mandate Over Armenia

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—The senate foreign relations committee today flatly refused President Wilson's request for a mandate over Armenia.

By a vote of 11 to 4, the committee adopted a resolution "respectfully declining" to authorize the mandate. It was drawn by Brandegee, Connecticut, republican.

The resolution reads:
"Resolved that the congress hereby respectfully declines to grant to the executive, the power to accept a mandate over Armenia as required in the message of the president dated May 24, 1920."

RENT BILL BEFORE SENATE FOR FINAL ACTION LATE TODAY

REAL ESTATE MEN OPPOSE PHILLIPS' PET MEASURE—LITTLE OPPOSITION TO HOSPITAL

By United Press Leased Wire
Madison.—Governor E. L. Phillips' anti-rent profiteering measure will come up for final action in the senate late this afternoon.

The measure will go into the upper house carrying the recommendation of the joint committee.

Committee approval was granted last night following a day's debating at which the protests of realtors from every section of the state were heard.

The finance committee spent the morning debating the appropriation clause of the bill in an effort to fix an amount to be awarded the railroad commission for the establishment of a bureau for the bill's enforcement.

Indications are that there will be a lively scrap over the measure on the floor of the senate, followed by a second assault in the assembly should the upper house pass it.

Madison.—With two days of the special session gone with little actual work accomplished, indications today are that the Wisconsin lawmakers will take an adjournment Friday afternoon over Memorial Day, reconvening on Tuesday.

With only three days left there is little prospect that the body will be able to dispose of the 23 bills on the calendar.

Fight Rent Bill
Governor Phillips' rent bill is meeting with stiff opposition from real estate men in every corner of the state. The Severson bill proposing a surtax on incomes as a substitute for the mill tax plan of raising additional funds for the state university and normal schools, also serves as a wrench hurled into the machinery.

Hearing on the rent bill was resumed this morning despite the fact that all yesterday afternoon and part of last night was devoted to listening to opposition to the measure.

Want State Hospital
Unqualified endorsement of the project to establish a state general hospital here in connection with the medical school at the university marked the opening hearing conducted last in the assembly chamber of the capitol on Senator Kuehn's bill, which would appropriate approximately $1,500,000 for purchase of land, erection of buildings and installation of equipment.

President Birge of the university; Major Fitzpatrick of the state board of education; W. R. Boyd of the lower state board of education; Dean C. R. Harden of the university medical school; Dr. George B. Brown of the state psychopathic department; Dean Louis Jermoin of the Marquette Medical School; Colonel Gilbert E. Seaman of the university board of regents; Dr. J. S. Evans of the university clinic; Senator Pullen, chairman of the education and public welfare committee, which is considering the bill, and Doctors Edward Evans of La Crosse, and J. B. McMahon, representing the Wisconsin Medical Society—all expressed themselves as in favor of immediate passage of legislation to construct the hospital.

REPORTS AT NOON TODAY INDICATE THAT GOAL SET FOR CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN REACHED

WILL KEEP ON WORKING

More Money is Needed to Make up Possible Losses and to Provide For Increased Cost of Building New Institution

Although figures announced at the Sherman House meeting Wednesday night indicated that the effort to end the St. Elizabeth hospital campaign in 48 hours was not altogether successful, reports received up until noon today indicated that the quota has been reached and that the new hospital is an assured fact. There is every probability that reports at tonight's meeting will show a total well over the half million dollar mark.

Subscriptions announced last night totaled $487,868.42, an increase of $62,416.00 over the previous day's report. It is said that there are still several large subscriptions to be obtained and that they will swell the total over the required $500,000.

It was announced that the executive committee will be in power until hospital campaign is completed. It is necessary to continue the drive until at least $525,000 or even more is pledged so that an actual half million dollars will be available for building the structure. Solicitors were urged to work with new energy today to reach that total.

Reports last night included but few from the country districts. There were several large subscriptions from Kaukauna included and a few from other districts but in the main the donations thus far reported have been from Appleton people. It is believed that when the county report is in the total will easily reach $550,000 but an effort must be made to see every possible donor, it was explained.

Solicitors were also reminded that the cost of the hospital will probably for exceed the estimate of $500,000. Receipt reports indicated that proposed structure cannot be built for much less than $600,000 and consequently a larger sum than originally estimated is required. For that reason the campaign will be continued until every available dollar has been corralled.

Although the "cream" had been skimmed off in the first day's effort there was little cessation yesterday from the hard work of the day previous. Workers appeared to be as enthusiastic at last night's meeting as they were the first and second gatherings. There was every indication that the campaign will be waged with as much determination today as in the first two days.

Following are the reports by divisions:
Div. Chm. Wed. To-Tl
1 Dr. Rector ... $510.00 $20,835.00
2 Dr. Ritchie ... 1,623.50 3,543.26
3 C. C. Baker ... 325.00 722.00
4 L. J. Marshall ... 468.75 2,131.69
5 J. R. Diderich ... 485.00 5,627.35
6 R. E. Carnross ... 924.98 2,887.18
7 J. J. Plank ... 442.00 5,240.70
8 Wm. Polack ... 1,183.49 4,710.49
9 H. A. Schmitz ... 2,687.74 19,168.18
10 Wm. Fountain ... 1,915.50 11,646.50
12 Mrs. Kinsman ... 645.50 3,679.70
Executive Com. 23,350.00 68,150.00

Reports from the country districts were very incomplete. In several places the campaign has hardly started while in others it will not begin until Monday. In no district has the work been completed. It is expected that detailed reports will be presented at the meeting at the Sherman House at 6:30 o'clock this evening.

Among the country reports last night were the following: Freedom, $690; Canton, $2,100; Kimberly, $500; Hortonville and Hortonia, $1,500; Grand Chute, $2,363; Osborn, $150.

Kaukauna is just getting started but the workers are confident that the $15,000 quota will be raised. A $5,000 donation by Charles Stribley of that city was reported last night.

It is hoped by campaign leaders that tonight's meeting will be the last in the drive. It was announced that prizes are to be given to the persons turning in the largest subscriptions today.

SEE SUBTLE PLOT TO DEFEAT LENROOT IN STATE NEXT FALL

EASTERN EXPERT REVIEWS SITUATION IN WISCONSIN WITH RELATION TO SENATE CONTENT.

Washington, D. C.—The following summary of the Wisconsin senatorial situation was filed Wednesday night by the Washington bureau of the New York Tribune for publication on Thursday:

"For the first time in the history of the United States the issue of nationalism vs. internationalism, clean and concrete, will furnish the foundation for a political campaign when, in Wisconsin, next August, the primary of the republican party will determine whether Irvine L. Lenroot, American, or James Thompson, internationalist, shall be the senatorial candidate.

"Senator Lenroot was elected in April, 1918, to fill the unexpired term of the late Paul Husting, democrat. He is making his campaign on the direct issues of the right and duty of America to participate in the recent world war, of adherence to the constitution and the sanctity of that instrument, and of obedience to the laws of the republic.

Backed by La Follette.
"His opponent, Thompson, on the other hand, and with the backing of Senator La Follette, is campaigning through the state with the issue that America's entrance into the world strife was precipitated in the interest of the financiers, national and international, and by the plethorically wealthy manufacturers of munitions and other material of war.

"Thompson further argues that the selective draft law was the cruel and unwarranted infliction on the will of a government upon its citizens, unjustified by the needs of the occasion.

"Thompson holds to the doctrine that every American life spilled on the fields of France, in contribution to the cause of world democracy, was a life wasted.

"Although it is difficult to conceive at this time, that issues such as he La Follette wing of the G. O. P. have drawn, can receive serious attention and consideration at the hands of an American electorate, nevertheless the case is exactly as stated.

"Back of Lenroot are arrayed, in addition to his numerous following of republican progressives and progressive republicans, all the 'ancient and honorable' of the erstwhile standpat organization in Wisconsin.

Aided by Socialists.

"Behind Thompson's candidacy stands practically the entire socialist party of the Badger state, the intrusion of which into the republican primaries is regarded by both republicans and democrats as a menace to the republican party's solidarity, and even its existence; the extreme radicals of La Follette's group within the party, and the supporters of the Plumb plan of nationalization of the utilities of transportation throughout the United States.

"La Follette himself has never yielded unqualified support to the Plumb program, but he opposed the Cummins reorganization bill on numerous grounds, and advanced numerous suggestions for its redrafting along lines designed to nationalize completely the railways of the country.

"But today his candidate, Thompson, has swallowed the Plumb plan, lock, stock and barrel, and is rampaging through the state of Wisconsin, supporting this measure, which is admittedly a step in the direction of wholly sovietizing the transportation facilities of the land.

"He is promising that, if elected, he will bend every energy toward the incorporation of such a law in the federal statutes.

Attracts Attention.
"The effect, nationally, of this peculiar and unusual campaign is attracting grave attention on the part of both national parties to the Wisconsin situation.

"Though Wisconsin has always been counted a rockribbed republican community, with the surety of the election, either of Lenroot, or a republican successor to him with a huge majority for the republican electors and the continuance of the G. O. P. in control of the state, the Wisconsin democrats and their national overlords are perking up.

"In democratic councils it is the belief that if Thompson succeeds in overthrowing Lenroot under with an avalanche of socialist, pro-German and LaFollettized republican votes next August, the November results will be materially effected.

"In republican headquarters there is grave apprehension that the reaction against radicalism will deflect Wisconsin from the republican to the democratic column to the extent of sending a democrat to the senate in Lenroot's place, if not throwing the electoral vote to the San Francisco nominee.

"Thompson, if nominated, will be backed for election by both the radical La Follette republicans and the socialist and their allies.

Driven Out of Party.
"Among the L. W. W. and the non-partisan leagues this, it is believed, will drive the rank and file of the republicans of the state who are loyal to the older principles of the party and sincerely American, to support a democrat.

"On the other hand, the nomination of Lenroot will at once insure a separate socialist ticket, with Victor Berger the nominee, or some other equally prominent radical leader, the nomination by the democrat of a straw man candidate, whose defeat will be easy, and the alignment behind the senator of the whole republican rank and file of Wisconsin, except a paltry remainder of the thick and thin LaFollette following.

"Today in Wisconsin there are practically 50,000 German voters, who, although united behind Thompson for the primary fight, will split once the nominations are made and vote with their proper affiliations in the three national parties, unless Thompson is the winner."

WISCONSIN SCHOOL SYSTEM RANKS 35TH

EDUCATION REPORT SHOWS WISCONSIN IS IN LOWEST RANK AMONG STATES OF NATION.

Wisconsin, seventeenth state in the union as regards per capita wealth, is thirty-fifth on a list of fifty-two states, territories and possessions in the matter of primary and secondary education.

Just how far down Wisconsin is rated in the matter of general education was brought out in an analysis made by the Russell Sage foundation, in a report entitled "An Index Number for State School Systems" and written by Dr. Leonard P. Ayres, director of the foundation department of education.

Ranks Half-Way.

According to this comparative study, worked out by taking the official data showing the number of children attending school, the amount of training they are given, the progress they make, the amount expended for buildings and supplies, the salaries paid their teachers and other similar items, Wisconsin is rated 51.3. This is practically the average for the country. Montana ranks first with a rating of 75.8 and South Carolina last with 29.4.

The figures for the individual states, as given by the foundation, show that during the last thirty years the west has been coming up educationally while the east has been going down. During this time the greatest increase has been made by Utah, while Maryland has suffered the greatest falling off in standing. In the east the only state that has gained is New Jersey. In the west California maintains the most consistently high record. Among the northern states only two are lower than Wisconsin, which is outranked by every state bordering it.

Average Salary $44.

In a table showing the percentage of individuals between 5 and 18 years attending school daily, Wisconsin stood in thirty-sixth place. In the average annual expenditure per child of school age it was thirty-first. Wisconsin pays its teachers an average of $44.03 monthly for each year. California, the highest state, averages $88.08. Only four northern states pay teachers as little as Wisconsin.

When only strictly educational and not financial features are counted, Wisconsin ranks twenty-sixth.

The state ranks high on two points—the number of days schools are kept open, and the percentage of high school pupils.

One of the interesting results of the study is the conclusion that the school systems of the United States, territorial possessions, such as Hawaii and Porto Rico, have higher ratings than those of the forty-eight states.

GROUP 3 BANKERS TO BANQUET HERE TOMORROW NIGHT

MAYOR J. A. HAWES TO WELCOME FINANCIERS AT BANQUET—MORNING MEETING IN GREEN BAY

Group three of the Wisconsin Bankers' association will inaugurate the excursion season tomorrow with a trip up river from Green Bay to Appleton on the steamer Paul L. Oshkosh. Several hundred bankers will gather in the morning at Green Bay where they will hold a program at the Elk club. A banquet is to be served at the Sherman House on their arrival here.

Mayor J. A. Hawes is to deliver the address of welcome at the Appleton gathering. It is expected that the steamer will reach Appleton about five o'clock in the afternoon and the banquet is to start about six o'clock. The remainder of the program will consist of toasts by Appleton and outside bankers. Music is to be rendered by an orchestra during the dinner. Election of officers is to be held also.

The opening session of the morning convention at Green Bay is to be addressed by Mayor Elmer Hall, who will welcome the bankers. L. Albert Karel of Kewanee, president of group three, is to give the annual address. His subject will be "Purring of Checks." H. E. Stedman of Sturgeon Bay will speak on "Bank Salaries," and A. J. Whitford of Marinette on "Desirability of a Collecting Account."

The remainder of the morning will be devoted to an inspection of the Northern Paper Mills at Green Bay. Embarkation on the steamer is to take place at noon and luncheon is to be served aboard the boat. Community singing is to be indulged in during the trip.

Dover, Del.—The senate resolution ratifying the suffrage amendment will probably be messaged to the lower house of the Delaware legislature late this afternoon and the final vote taken on Friday. ### OUTAGAMIE COUNTY SPORTSMEN FAVOR CONSERVATION LAW

HUNTERS AND FISHERS ENDORSE EFFORTS OF STATE COMMISSION AT MEETING LAST NIGHT

The one buck law, a closed season for muskrat and mink, and a measure requiring hunters to record their season's kill, three bills favored by the Wisconsin Conservation Commission, and which will be recommended to the state legislature at the next session, were voted for unanimously by Outagamie county sportsmen at a public hearing conducted by the commission at the court house Wednesday night.

W. E. Barber, Madison, chairman of the commission, conducted the hearing. Not a dissenting voice against any of the measures was raised. The advantage of each proposition was first presented by Mr. Barber, after which expressions of opinion were received from the audience.

To save Wisconsin's deer, either a one buck law or a closed season is necessary, Mr. Barber said. "It has been estimated that 25,000 deer were killed in the state last year."

The sentiment of hunters throughout the state favors a one buck law, the commissioner said.

One Buck Law Favored.

The one buck law was defended by Attorney Mark Catlin, president of the Wisconsin State Fish and Game Protective Association. "While I would be willing to have a closed season, I do not think the situation demands such a measure. It is true that the deer in Wisconsin are getting scarce."

"The law has been successful in practically every state where it has been tried," Mr. Catlin said.

"We should try to perpetuate the fish and game in this state, I, as well as many of you, have children and we should be selfish indeed if we did not leave for them the same pleasures of field and stream which we enjoy."

Denounce Law Breakers.

Hunters who are violating the law regarding the killing of deer were denounced. Vigorous prosecution of the men who kill deer before the season opens and sell their kill, was suggested.

"The one buck law will help to save the lives of hunters in the north woods," James McCabe said. "Hunters will learn to look before shooting, and there will be less danger of a fatal mistake."

Recording of the season's kill by the hunter is simple in operation, Mr. Barber explained. A card will be provided with the hunting license, which the hunter has only to fill out and mail to the commission.

The state at present has no real record of what is happening to the fish and game of Wisconsin.

Game Worth Millions.

Fish and game measures will get the consideration from legislators they deserve, it records showing the many million dollars of value the fish and game acre to the state are brought before the public, was the argument of Mr. Catlin.

The muskrat situation is becoming acute and measures must be taken if muskrat are to remain in Wisconsin, Mr. Barber asserted. The animals are being killed by the thousands; something should be done. Hunters over the entire state are in favor of a closed season wherever it has been explained, the commissioner said.

The closed season for muskrat must also include mink, as traps for the two animals are practically alike, giving the illegal hunter an abut which could not be overcome were only muskrat included in the closed season.

A Hunter's Paradise.

In his talk, Mr. Barber said that Wisconsin ranks second to none in hunting and fishing opportunities. Wisconsin has 3,000 trout streams, he said.

Fishermen who are complaining of the law preventing the catching of black bass until July 1 should not oppose a measure which will save the black bass for Wisconsin, he said.

He explained that black bass are the only fish which cannot be propagated except in the way nature has provided. The spawning period is in June, and the catching of either of the parent fish, which is very easy, results in the destruction of the eggs.

The hearing was called by petition of 25 Outagamie county hunters and fishermen. Not a trapper attended the meeting.

I. H. Boomer, chief warden of the state, accompanied Mr. Barber here. Sportsmen from Shiocton, Seymour and Black Creek were present.

points on our own line, which would take foreign cars in an opposite direction from the owner, then system cars should be used just as far as possible.

"When operating conditions make the above instructions practicable we will have accomplished a great deal in the movement toward getting cars to their owners. Have agents solicit the co-operation of shippers in this matter."

A TEST OF CITIZENSHIP

St. Elizabeth hospital is to be rebuilt. In place of the outgrown, outworn, impoverished building which now serves in that capacity we are to erect a modern and splendidly equipped hospital to cost $500,000. This amount has been subscribed jointly by the Sisters and the public. In the brief period of forty-eight hours $200,000 was raised through strictly popular contributions. There are not many cities in the country, population considered, where an undertaking of this proportion could be so cleanly, so thoroughly so expeditiously handled. We maintain that Appleton is in a class by itself when it comes to the support of worthy civic projects, no matter what their character or their requirements. This ability is not due merely to resources, it is due primarily to civic spirit that testifies to more than ordinary home pride and home loyalty.

The St. Elizabeth hospital campaign has been a magnificent success. It is a tribute to the faithfulness and capability of those who have directed it and who have been responsible for results. They have performed a notable service for Appleton and have made possible the consummation of one of the most important and essential undertakings in which Appleton has ever engaged. The campaign has been marked by rare demonstration of unselfishness and public generosity. It is an achievement which reflects the highest credit upon Appleton.

The financing of St. Elizabeth Hospital shows what can be done in this city in the way of providing public works and institutions which have to do with the larger side of our community life and which go to make Appleton a worthwhile place in which to live. The Post-Crescent congratulates all those connected with the campaign, the Sisters of St. Elizabeth Hospital and the people at large. It was not a test of money at all, it was a test of citizenship. It is the Appleton way.

SUGAR AND OTHER THINGS

Mr. Hoover is doubtless right in his contention that proper governmental action taken when it was possible to be effective would have spared the country the present sugar famine and extortionate prices. Mr. Hoover says, in testifying before the joint legislative committee at New York, that sugar would today be selling for from 12 to 13 cents a pound had the equalization board been authorized by the administration to purchase the Cuban raw sugar supply, which could have been had at a price of six and one-half cents. There seems to be no question but what a serious mistake was made in not taking over the Cuban supply when it was available. The shortage of output in this country was not only visible but absolutely certain. Production had fallen so far behind demand in the world market that it was only a question of which countries were to secure anything like an adequate supply of sugar, to say nothing of price. At the time the Cuban raw output was available such pressure was brought to bear upon the government to direct the sugar equalization board to take it over, and there were warnings as to what would result in case the crop was not purchased. However, the advice and effort went for nothing and today the American consumer is paying the price of this mistake in 20 to 35 cent sugar. For this neglect the people ought to hold the administration responsible.

Whatever may be Mr. Hoover's qualifications for the presidency, he is an authority on economics and if there is any one person in the United States who is qualified to speak touching food conditions as well as the whole subject of the cost of living, it is he. Mr. Hoover has been more closely in contact with economic forces, both natural and artificial, throughout the war and the period following the war than any other person in the country. He summarizes the situation intelligently when he says that the predominant causes of the high cost of living are, shortage in commodities due to under-production in Europe and the drain upon us by exports, inflation especially in the expansion of credit facilities for non-essential purposes, profiteering and speculation, maladjustment of taxation, particularly the excess profits tax, decrease in production due to relaxation of effort since the war, strikes and other causes, increase in consumption, waste and extravagance, deterioration of transportation facilities and an expensive and wasteful distribution system. These causes cover the case. They define with excellent analysis the reasons for the high cost of living, and they suggest by way of inference the steps which ought to be taken to reduce the cost of living. Some of these steps are now being taken, but not all of them. It is obvious that the most of these causes could have been met and eliminated by governmental and other action at the right time. The responsibility for inaction rests upon both the executive branch of government and upon congress. We have had a woeful demonstration of incapacity in dealing with the problems of reconstruction, of which the cost of living was a vitally important phase.

IS THE PRESIDENCY FOR SALE?

The senate investigation of the use of money in the presidential campaign is bringing to light interesting facts. So far as the inquiry has gone it substantiates the charges originally made that excessive sums were being expended to control the nominating conventions. The testimony shows that Governor Lowden, who has financed his own campaign, has spent $411,000. Senator Johnson of California has had spent in his behalf approximately $80,000 while Poindexter's account to date is $75,000. The committee is having difficulty in getting at the figures for Gen. Wood, who is alleged to have had the largest fund of any candidate at his disposal. Charges made on the floor of the senate by Mr. Borah, which precipitated this investigation, were to the effect that upwards of $1,000,000 had been spent to promote the Wood candidacy. It is not without significance that Gen. Wood's managers are showing reluctance in disclosing the record in his case, but the investigation unquestionably will get at the facts sooner or later. What sums the Democratic candidates have succeeded in collecting for their campaigns are yet to be revealed. The committee has not got that far in their work.

Enough evidence has been obtained, however, to show a general tendency to "go the limit" in this campaign in the use of money. Apparently everybody in both parties has proceeded on the assumption that money can control the nomination and possibly the election. While in the days of Mark Hannah we had large campaign funds they were pretty well covered up so far as exact amounts were concerned. Today we find no real effort to conceal campaign expenditures, coupled with a disposition to let them go as far as the ability to obtain money will permit. The candidates seems to have started out with the idea that the temper of the people would tolerate the use of any amount of money that might be raised. Perhaps this idea was suggested subconsciously by the national extravagance and widespread profiteering which prevail. In an atmosphere where money flows as water and where business has been dispossessed of so much morality it was natural that a similar spirit should lay hold of candidates for public office.

Nevertheless the use of money in the campaign is excessive and deplorable. It resembles in some respects the efforts in various states to purchase United States senatorships, resulting in scandal and even criminal prosecutions. If we compare this method of filling the great office of the presidency with the practices that obtained before the Civil war we cannot but regard it with humiliation and misgiving. It does not evolve a very great tax upon the imagination to conceive what Washington or Jefferson or Jackson or Lincoln would have thought of the modern way of nominating and electing presidents through the expenditure of millions of dollars. The conditions into which we have drifted are a credit neither to the presidency nor to the men seeking this office. They are a national disgrace and it is inevitable that sooner or later we shall have a revulsion of public sentiment which will put a stop to what is fast degenerating into an attempt to purchase the presidency, and that we shall so regulate the use of money it will at least be politically and morally defensible.

NOTED PHYSICIAN AND AUTHOR.
Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writers' names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

HEALTH AND PEDAGOGY
Of all professions pedagogy, from its very nature, ought to be the most progressive. Upon the ability of the teacher depends the child's whole future career. If the standard of teaching in the common school is permitted to fall a little below the very best, the training of the pupil will necessarily be poor. If a community seeks to purchase the services of teachers for a price below the compensation commanded by the best trained teachers, that community is cheating itself.

I find that in all parts of the country a practice which I believe most physicians condemn for the same reason that I do—keeping children after school—prevails most where the teachers have the poorest training. In cities where the highest standards prevail one finds that this ancient rite is no longer retained—and children in city schools are neither brighter nor more amenable to discipline than children in country schools.

Recently a number of teachers, some country school teachers and some city school teachers, have written me letters resenting my published remarks about this habit of keeping children after school. Some of these letters are weird examples of spelling and punctuation; some are written in pencil; some are written on both sides of the paper; some are not signed. As I say, poorly trained teachers keep children after school, and poorly managed schools have a place for such teachers.

The younger the child the greater the injury to health done by such teachers. It is really too much to make a little child sit prim and quiet for four or five hours a day. It is nothing less than wicked to repress little ones who should naturally be active and almost constantly on the move. It is ridiculous from the common sense viewpoint, and harmful to the child's nervous system, in my opinion, to prohibit the child from whispering, from glancing at the clock, from going after a drink of water or from answering the calls of nature without a special permit from the teacher. None of these crimes are penalized elsewhere in a child's life than in the unprogressive schoolroom by the teacher in a rut.

Parents with the best interests of their children at heart ought to make a great fuss whenever a teacher keeps a child after school, even though the teacher thinks it is necessary for the maintenance of the child's standing in his studies. If parents would let no such incident pass without creating a little uproar at school about it, I am sure that great good would come of the protest.

It is a curious fact that even in places where medical school inspection is in vogue the physicians so employed sometimes lack the courage or interest to make known the valid objections to this practice from the plain viewpoint of health.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
A Lesson Not Learned
While we were in the army they gave us something in the way of medicine or something in the food, I don't know whether it was saltpetre or not, but it was very satisfactory in suppressing the sexual inclinations. I would thank you for the name of that remedy. (C. B. K.)
ANSWER—You are misinformed. No such remedy or agent was used in the army. Nor is there any such remedy or agent worthy of serious consideration. The influences which really were wholesome in the army were simple food, regular hours, and especially active open air exercise or work. The saltpetre yarn is an unfounded sailor's yarn.

Horseback Riding
A number of girls in the office have taken to horseback riding recently, and we would like to know whether it is injurious to the kidneys, as some people say, or a healthful exercise, as others say. Also please tell us whether horseback riding is unwise at the menstrual period, provided one experiences no difficulty or trouble of any kind at that time. (S. G. C.)
ANSWER—It is a healthful recreation and exercise, not injurious to the kidneys, and it need not be interrupted because of menstruation. Menstruation is not a disease, but a function.

Feather Beds
Is it unhealthful to sleep on a feather bed? (Mrs. C. A. R.)
ANSWER—No. Only in exceptional instances an individual is sensitized to the protein of feathers and suffers an asthmatic seizure if he or she sleeps on feather bed or pillow.

The Divorced Husband Uses His Old Tactics On a New Love

"Eternity and the end of my torture were but an hour away, but as I watched my husband across the table from that pretty girl, I knew that I was facing more agony than I had endured in all my previous life. I couldn't believe that the man could forget me. That was my egotism, I suppose. I had given him all the glory and all the humility of perfect love. He must remember, I told myself, he must still keep a little corner of his heart for me.

"I didn't know, or at least I wouldn't let myself consider a great truth:

"Man doesn't love a woman for what she has given him. He loves her for what he hopes to get.

"I had given much, and he had forgotten, and his hope was fixed on the girl across from him.

"I watched her. I knew about her. He and she had the artistic temperament plus. They were collaborating—or thought they were—on some western stuff for the movies.

"The girl was a beauty—a peach—and a jolly good fellow as well. One of those versatile creatures who can do a dozen things: paint and write dramas, act and sing and do newspaper work. But the trouble was that she never could convert her talents into a steady income. Perhaps she was cultivating too many of them at a time.

"She listened, perfectly absorbed in what my husband was saying. I saw her eyes widen and her cheeks glow. Just so I had listened to him a thousand times. As I watched him, I could guess what he was saying. He was demonstrating for her the same line of flattery he handed to all women who attracted him.

"Suddenly a new idea of the whole situation took possession of me.

"I knew his opinions, his intentions to the final infection. First they would talk about new fiction and the stage, then they would discover that they had the same sympathies and tastes in art. They would speak of love—the basis of all art—and thus they would arrive at sex in general and then sex in particular.

"And the man would protest that a woman must have brains to move his pulses. Brains before sex charm. He never had met a woman with as much brains as she had.

"That was his usual approach to a woman he desired to please. He was handing it to the girl—I could tell from her manner, and her eyes. She was married and sophisticated and aware of nature's trap, but she looked up at the man as if he were something new under the sun, while he went on with his appeal. I had listened just so, in my time. After this girl would come another devoted listener. Next winter there would be still another—and so on—far into the man's old age.

"And suddenly, the episode struck me as being awfully funny. Now you women may consider me curiously inconsistent, or fickle, or maybe quite hard, but I want you to know that my horrible heartache left me! It simply slipped away! And it has never come back!"

"But you must have been awfully jealous," said Chrys.

"I felt that I ought to be. But somehow, I wasn't. I surprised myself. I wasn't even interested in the pair any longer. I paid my bill and walked out of the tea room. The man's love affairs were no more to me than those of the waiter—or of some Mohammedan in Constantinople.

"I went straight to a movie director whom I knew and found employment. Then I sent for Ann."

"And why have you never had a jealous pang since? Can you tell me that?" asked Chrys.

"I think so. What I saw proved to me that I was absolutely forgotten. The man had never guessed the amount, the intensity of the love I had lavished upon him. It was the tribute of years, the consecration of my soul and my body and he had passed it up for a woman who would fall into his arms in seven days or less."

G.O.P. Convention Snap-Shots
The Story of 16 Nominations
By A. H. VANDENBERG

Ninth Convention
When the ninth quadrennial Republican Party convocation met in Chicago, June 9th, 1888, James G. Blaine was still the towering giant among all Republicans. Particularly after Cleveland issued his famous tariff message and the Mills Bill was introduced, circumstances and necessities seemed to call "the plumed knight" once more to leadership. But ill health made such activity for him impossible. Blaine refused to allow the consideration of his name—although some delegates insisted upon voting for him to the end.

The only other candidate of previous Convention prominence was John Sherman of Ohio, who had twice previously sought the palm. Sherman led for six ballots. At first his nearest competitor was Walter G.resham of Indiana. Then General Russell A. Alger of Michigan forged to the fore.

Other candidates on the roll were Senator Allison of Iowa, Chauncey M. Depew of New York, Jeremiah Rusk of Wisconsin, William Walter Phelps of New Jersey, John J. Ingalls of Kansas, E. H. Filer of Pennsylvania, McKinley of Ohio and Robert T. Lincoln of Illinois.

General Benjamin Harrison of Indiana started modestly with 80 votes; crowded Sherman on the sixth ballot with 231 votes; went into the lead on the seventh with 278 votes; and was nominated on the eighth and last ballot with 544 votes.

One ballot then sufficed to complete the ticket with Levi P. Morton of New York—who, with 591 votes, found his nearest competitors in Phelps of New York, with 115, and William O. Bradley of Kentucky, with 103. The temporary chairman of the Convention was John M. Thurston of Nebraska; the permanent chairman, Maurice M. Estee of California.

The platform "congratulated our fellow citizens of Irish birth upon the peaceful recovery of home rule for Ireland," charged Democracy with criminal suppression of negro votes in the South; opposed the immigration of Chinese labor; re-emphasized tariff protection as paramount; invited South Dakota, Washington, Montana, New Mexico, Wyoming, Idaho and Arizona into the Union; once more banned polygamy, demanded penny letter postage; and arraigned Cleveland for his opposition to pension legislation.

HILBERT SUFFERS $75,000 LOSS BY FIRE EARLY TODAY

GARAGE OWNED BY MRS. J. F. TOLLEFSON OF APPLETON IS DESTROYED BY BLAZE.

A half block of business houses on the main street of Hilbert was destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning, causing a loss of more than $75,000, only partially covered by insurance. The fire spread with great rapidity and for a time threatened to wipe out the entire business district. Buildings destroyed include a garage building owned by Mrs. J. F. Tollefson, 550 Rankin street, Appleton; Mutual theatre, owned by Frank H. Pieper and Ray Gage; hotel, dwelling and two barns owned by John Loewe; electric light plant owned by Van Wagner and Schmidt, and a barn owned by Henry Wielker.

The fire started in the Ford garage operated by Van Wagner and Schmidt a few minutes after midnight. Although the fire department got into action at once the blaze spread very rapidly and in a few minutes a half dozen structures were in flames. Four streams of water were used. Firemen devoted their efforts largely to saving other structures when it was found that those already burning could not be saved. Not less than a half dozen business places and dwellings were ignited by flying brands, but were saved. One house, only eight feet away from the burning garage, was saved.

Ten new Ford automobiles delivered to the garage late yesterday afternoon were destroyed. They were not insured. Telephone service with the village was interrupted for several hours.

The heaviest loss was suffered by Mr. Loewe. He estimated that the fire cost him $10,000 above insurance. The garage, which was totally destroyed, represents a loss of about $9,000 above insurance. The theatre company estimates its loss at $4,500 above insurance.

Reports this morning indicated that the child is recovering rapidly. It is not believed that the other eye will be affected.

STILL NO AUTOS ARE OFFERED FOR MONDAY

"It looks as if the aged veterans and members of the women's patriotic organizations will have to walk to the cemetery Memorial day," said Fred F. Wettengel, chairman of the transportation committee today. Request was made for 50 cars to be used from three to five o'clock Monday afternoon, but not a single offer had been received up to noon today. Mr. Wettengel hopes that owners of cars will feel it their patriotic duty to loan their cars for this brief period. Offers should be telephoned to number 1881.

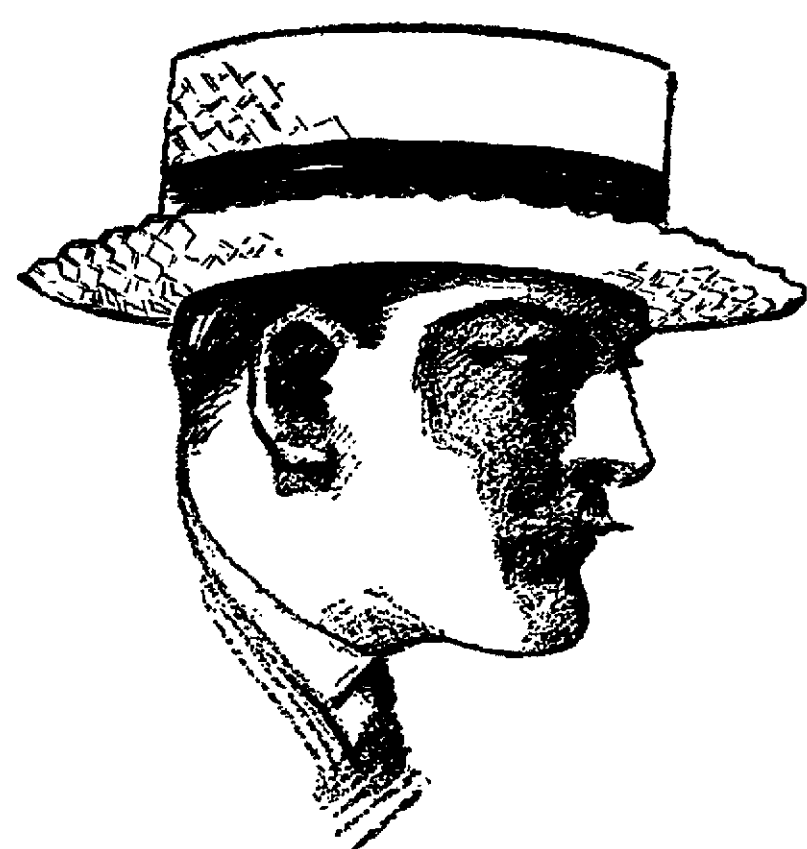

Arthur Gross of Milwaukee, was here on business today.

Surface, of the forest products division, income tax unit of the United States treasury department.

It is probable the next meeting will be held in the Wisconsin river valley where a large number of papermills are located.

Littering up of the cemetery grounds with paper and refuse from lunches, destruction of fences to secure fuel for fires, and molesting of shrubbery and flowers are among the pranks played. It is said that the cemetery officials protested against the conduct of the young people but were given taunting replies. Evidence has been secured showing that the same persons visited the grounds on successive nights. The keepers are determined that there shall be no further desecration or improper conduct in the burial grounds.

NO WORD REGARDING ARRIVAL OF BODY

No word has been received from the government by Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Feavel regarding the body of their son Harvey, which was to have arrived at New York last Monday. ### NEW ADDRESS RULE FOR MAIL FOR DANZIG CITY

Instructions received at the post-office require that all mail intended for the free city of Danzig, which Germany ceded to the allies during peace negotiations, should be addressed "Free City of Danzig, Europe."

It appears that mail intended for this European point has been addressed either to Poland, Prussia or Germany, causing confusion in dispatching. Mail for smaller places lying within the free city territory should be addressed the same way and will be dispatched to the city intended.

THIRD PARTY PREPARES TO ENTER NATIONAL RACE

By United Press Leased Wire
Cleveland.—Concrete steps for the formation of a third party will be taken here Friday at a meeting of the national officers of the committee of "forty-eight" and the National Labor Party, according to an announcement today by Max Hays, chairman of the national committee of the latter party.

A complete national ticket will be selected, Hays said.

Farmer and labor organizations throughout the country will be invited to join the party if the meeting Friday finds the representatives of the two parties harmonious, Hays stated.

The four main principles to be embodied in the platform are:

Restoration of civil liberties; nationalization of all monopolies; the Plumb plan, and prohibition of land speculation to stop rent profiteering and advance production.

WASHINGTON IS NEAR RACE RIOT OUTBREAK

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—Police here were on the alert today for signs of an outbreak of race rioting such as caused bloodshed in the streets of Washington last summer.

Alexandria, Virginia, near here, was patrolled by troops during the night for fear of fighting between whites and negroes.

The rumor appeared to have originated in information received by the Washington police, that negroes plotted revenge for the attempts to lynch William H. Turner, colored, who murdered Thomas M. Moore on the highway between Washington and Alexandria early last Sunday.

Guy Waldo of Park Falls, is visiting in the city.

LAST YEAR'S STRAW TO SEE SERVICE AGAIN

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Wah hoh owan senng fun.

That's the reason for the high cost of straw hats.

Chinese laborers, rebelling against low wages paid for making straw braid, are going into other industries. Local straw hat dealers say that it means this country will have a straw hat famine. Straw braid, used for making straw hats, is chiefly imported from China.

Yung Lee, Chinese laundryman, gives the reason.

"They want more money," is the English of it.

Dealers say Chicago's straw hats this year will be less than 250,000. Last year, according to H. Posner, manager of a string of haberdashery shops, half a million Chicagoans bought straw hats.

WOOLEN COMPANY HEAD
IS CALLED PROFITEER

By United Press. Leased Wire. New York. — William M. Wood, president of the American Woollen Company of Massachusetts and the American Woollen Company of New York, who together with the two companies were indicted on charges of violation of the Lever act, will plead tomorrow before Judge Hand in federal court.

The indictment contained 14 counts each, charging specific acts of profiteering.

H. C. Smyth, special assistant attorney general, declared profits of the companies in 1920 increased 300 to 400 per cent over 1919.

The investigation, he said, revealed salaries and commissions in 1919 paid to Wood as president of both companies, totalled approximately $1,000,000 and that the companies' profits for the year despite a five months strike in most of their important mills, were over $15,000,000.

By United Press. Leased Wire. Ottawa, Ont. — Canada's claim against Germany for reparation for losses sustained by the country and by individual citizens during the war has been forwarded to England for presentation at conference of representatives of all parts of the British Empire, soon to be held in London, and subsequently, at an inter-allied conference at Spa.

The bill redrafted by the Dominion is for a total of $1,715,000,000. It includes the following items: Cost of war and demobilization, $1,715,000,000; separate allowances, $25,000,000; Halifax losses, $30,000,000; army of occupation, $8,000,000; illegal warfare, $31,500,000.

The separation allowances allotted to those paid to families and dependents of persons who served in the military and naval forces during the war.

By Halifax losses is meant the damages occasioned in that city by the explosion of the munition ship, Mont Blanc in 1917. The sum claimed under the head of army of occupation is the cost of maintaining Canadian troops on the Rhine from for a period after the signing of the armistice on November 11, 1918. The last item is a claim for compensation for damage sustained by Canadians as a result of the resort by Germany to illegal methods of warfare. Included in this item, for instance, would likely be a sum to cover losses of Canadian merchant and fishing vessels sunk by German U-boats during the period of unrestricted submarine warfare.

STRIKE MAY CLOSE UP SAWMILL AT STANLEY

Oshkosh.—O. T. Swan, secretary of the Northern Hemlock and Hardwood Manufacturers' association, commenting on Friday on continued reports of improvements in conditions as to the timber workers' strike, said:

"At Stanley the strikers closed the mill of the Northwestern Lumber company which had planned to continue operations for the remainder of the season. The strike precipitated matters and the company has announced that if the men do not return to work promptly the small supply of logs on hand will be sold to others and the mill dismantled."

The West Lumber company of Limerville, Wis., reports that the president of the local branch of the timber workers' union, with two union officers and eight other union men, have returned to work on a ten hour day basis with no concessions by the owners.

KENOSHA COUNCIL HALTS CONSTRUCTION WORK

Kenosha, Wis.—The poverty specter stalked through the city council chamber and cast its shadow over new contracts on construction work, paving and the sewage program. Plans to raise money to pay the interest on various bond issues formed the principal part of the discussion.

The plea of the park board for funds was emphatically refused, although it was admitted that several improvements were needed. When asked for the summer program of the sewage commission, representatives of that body stated that unless they were granted more funds nothing could be done, although several of the newer sections of the city are badly in need of sewage.

WANT PADEREWSKI FOR CONCERTS IF SKILL YET REMAINS

NOTED PIANIST WHO ABANDONED PLAYING TO LEAD POLAND HAS MILLION DOLLAR OFFER

(By James Henle)
(Special to Post-Crescent)

New York.—Ignace J. Paderewski has an offer of $1,000,000.00 from an American manager for a piano-playing tour to include the United States, Canada and South America. Hot he will not accept this unless he can persuade himself that he has retained all his former skill.

This will be more difficult for him than for some artists. He is not extraordinarily gifted by nature, he has attained his eminence by unflagging application and practice. And for nearly three years he hardly touched a piano.

Paderewski's hands are small for those of an artist; at the height of his career he could never span more than an octave.

Coming to U. S.

It is probable that Paderewski will come to this country soon and spend the summer in California. If he feels that he cannot give concerts he will probably devote himself to composition.

On his estate, Riond Boscon, at Morges, Switzerland, Paderewski is living in retirement.

He has given up his private fortune of $2,000,000 merely for an idea. For six years he has contributed every dollar he has made—above his bare living expenses—to this same idea. He has received nothing tangible in return.

But Ignace J. Paderewski has had a large part in creating a nation.

The great pianist, once the darling of society, the favorite of London, of Paris, of New York, of Chicago, of Vienna, of Madrid, is now living only upon the royalties from phonograph records and piano player rolls.

He may never be able to play as he once played. But Poland lives, and when her history is written Paderewski's name will be written in huge letters.

Last Time in 1917

The last time that Paderewski played in public was at the reception given to Marshal Joffre in the Metropolitan Opera House here, June, 1917. The arrangements were badly planned, and Joffre entered just as the world's premier pianist was playing Chopin's Polonaise Militaire. There was a craning of necks to see the veteran, and a rustle went about the house. It was an

CARDINALS DEFEAT REDS IN WILD GAME, 10 TO 8

ST. LOUIS.—St. Louis defeated Cincinnati in a wild game on Wednesday, 10 to 8. St. Louis won in the eighth when Stock tripled and scored on Hornby's single to left. The batter also scored when Duncan, after letting Hornby's drive get away from him, started for the clubhouse, apparently thinking the game ended.

Score: Cincinnati 1 0 0 2 2 0 3 0 8 St. Louis 2 2 2 0 1 1 2 4 10

RED SOX CLEAN SERIES, DEFEATING BROWNS, 9-5

BOSTON.—Boston cleaned up the series by defeating St. Louis, 9 to 5, on Wednesday. Fenwick pitched effectively until the ninth, while Shocker's wildness contributed largely to the result. Hendryx led in the heavy hitting with two doubles and two singles. Score: St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 5 Boston 3 0 0 1 0 0 1 4 9

SENATORS ROMP AWAY WITH INDIANS, 13-0

WASHINGTON.—Washington defeated Cleveland, 13 to 0, on Wednesday in the only game played out of a scheduled series of three. As a result of the defeat and Boston's victory over St. Louis, Cleveland lost the leadership in the American league race. Score: Cleveland 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 Washington 1 3 4 0 0 2 1 0 0 13

WHITE SOX FALL BEFORE ATTACK OF ATHLETICS

PHILADELPHIA.—Philadelphia hammered Williams for eleven hits in four innings on Wednesday, easily defeating Chicago, 10 to 2. Home runs by Perry and Dugan made the total eighteen in ten playing games of the local American league club. Score: Chicago 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 Philadelphia 1 2 2 0 2 1 0 0 2 10

BROOKLYN WINS FROM PITTSBURG TEAM, 3-2

PITTSBURG.—Brooklyn won Wednesday's game from the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3 to 2. Wisner was hit hard, while Grimes was hard to reach. However, he practically gave Pittsburgh its two runs, one with a wild pitch with a man on second, and the other by hitting a batsman, with the bases full. Grimes redeemed himself at the bat, driving in two of the Brooklyn runs. Score: Brooklyn 0 0 0 2 0 0 1 0 3 Pittsburgh 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 2

RUTH HITS EIGHTH HOME RUN AND TIGERS LOSE

NEW YORK.—The New York Yankees made it two out of three from Detroit here on Wednesday, winning the last game of the series, 4 to 1. Mordridge won his first victory of the season, and held the Tigers to four hits. In the second inning Ruth drove into the upper right field stand for his eighth home run of the year. ## RIPON CLUBS WIN FIGHT FOR NEW PARK FOR CITY

Ripon, Wis.—Through the efforts of clubs of the city and the city council, Ripon will have a new park. It is planned to build a cement drive around what is known as the lower pond, set out thousands of flowers and small shrubs, plant fast growing trees and build a bathhouse. The park will be located between the C. & N. W. R. R. and the C. M. & St. Paul depots.

SHIPPING TERMINAL PLANNED AT KENOSHA

Kenosha, Wis.—Barnett & Meyers, Buffalo commission merchants, have leased a site on Washington island for the erection of a terminal for a lake Michigan shipping route. The first vessel to leave the local port will be the Midland Queen. Each outbound boat will carry a consignment of Nash, Winther, Mitchell, Case, Kissel and Elgin automobiles. They will return to this city with supplies from the east for the Nash Motors Co.

There are in the United States, it is said, 60,000,000 persons who have limited or no library service.

LIQUID MEASURING PUMPS ON CARPET

STATE SEALERS TO DISCUSS PUMP SPECIFICATIONS AT MEETING IN MADISON NEXT MONTH.

Liquid measuring pumps which include those used for gasoline at garages and filling stations and also those used in stores for other purposes, are to be discussed at a conference of sealers of weights and measures at Madison on June 22, 23 and 24, which will be held under the auspices of the weights and measures division of the Wisconsin Dairy and Food commission.

The matter is also to be taken up at the national conference at Washington just prior to that date, at which it is expected that definite specifications for these pumps will be made. The date of the Madison conference was set late in the month so that members could get the benefit of the action taken at the national conference.

The weights and measures division of the Wisconsin dairy and food commission has been giving these pumps, and especially those used for gasoline purposes, special attention for some time, as it is alleged that the purchaser, either through the fault of the pump or the owner, does not always get the amount of gasoline for which he pays.

In the notice of the Madison conference sent out to city sealers of weights and measures, a copy of which has just been received by Joseph Hodgins of this city, R. W. Smith, chief inspector, says: "A short program will be planned for our meetings, but the bulk of the time will be spent in discussing in a more or less informal way various problems brought up by the sealers themselves. At our last conference the program was so full that there was not enough time for these discussions and we want to avoid that difficulty this year. It is sincerely hoped that every sealer in the state will be able to be present at this conference."

SPECIAL REDUCTIONS IN GEORGETTE CREPE WAISTS. BEADED AND FLIT LACE TRIMMED. A GOOD ASSORTMENT OF SIZES. THE FAIR.

TURTLE TAKES 21 YEARS TO MAKE 7-POUND GAIN

Lady Smith, Wis.—Twenty-one years ago George Stevens, Jr., caught a large turtle in Amnogy lake. It was so large that George, a boy at that time, was prompted to weigh it. It tipped the beam at 15 pounds. Boyish fancy led him to carve his initials on the back and turn it loose in the lake. While fishing at Amnogy recently, Rollo Goff and Deane Swineheart captured the same turtle, still bearing, plainly legible, the initials of Stevens. The turtle now weighs 25 pounds, and it is estimated that the reptile must be at least 50 years old, judging from its large size when first caught twenty-one years ago, and the comparatively small increase of weight during this period.

ACCIDENT PROVES FATAL TO CONCRETE WORKER

Janesville.—Following injuries sustained when a heavy concrete bucket fell on him while he was working on the road between Janesville and Beloit, recently, George Myers died Monday. He suffered a broken hip and internal injuries. He was the third to die within a week here from accidents. Daily reports were made to his mother at Nova Scotia of his condition.

One of the others who died, Earl Ballard, succumbed after a 40-foot fall from a scaffold while working at the plant of the Samson Tractor company. For several days his parents could not be located. His father, Robert E., was found at Longmont, Colo., and came on at once, taking the body home.

ORDAINED 25 YEARS AGO; WILL CELEBRATE

Fond du Lac.—The Rev. Charles Stehling, pastor of St. Mary's church, will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination on June 6. Father Stehling came to Fond du Lac seven years ago from Lodi, Wis. He was prepared for the priesthood and ordained at Innsbruck, Tyrol, and for some years was a professor at St. Francis seminary, Milwaukee. He has three brothers in the priesthood. They are the Rev. Henry Stehling, Woodhull; the Rev. Edward Stehling, Marytown, and the Rev. John Stehling, Richfield. Another brother, Joseph, is studying for priesthood at St. Francis.

Solemn services will be conducted at the local church June 6, followed by a children's program in the evening.

BROTHER-IN-LAWS FIGHT RESULTS IN LAW SUIT

Sheboygan, Wis.—Louis Hertziger was defendant in a civil action here today, brought by Arthur Trester, who wants $250 damage for a whipping he got on the street on May 19. The licking was administered, it was alleged, creating a family disturbance, the men being brother-in-laws. Hertziger did not deny that he administered the knockout to his relative, and while he is willing to pay, he did not want to pay so large an amount. He was fined $1 and costs on an assault and battery charge in municipal court on May 20, in the same matter.

According to the testimony, when Hertziger saw Trester on the street, he stopped his car, and administered the whipping, for the reason stated.

PLAN BUSINESS RALLY OF FOUR BADGER CITIES

Merrill, Wis.—Plans for a meeting of business men from Merrill, Rhineland, Minocqua and Tomahawk are being made by the Tomahawk Civic and Commercial club to be held in that city June 15. Mayor Frank Theiler and Judge George M. Sheldon, Tomahawk, are among those on the committee on arrangements.

GIRLS WILLING TO WORK IN STORES BUT NOT AS HOUSEMAIDS

APPLICANTS FOR DOMESTIC POSITIONS WANT REFERENCE FROM PROSPECTIVE EMPLOYERS.

Cooks and hired girls seeking positions are few and far between in Appleton. Any number of positions are open but there is nobody to fill them. Clerical positions, on the other hand, seem to draw plenty of applicants.

"We have calls every day for domestics," said C. E. Mullen of the Green store, where an employment bureau for women has been maintained for the last five years. "I don't remember when we have had a woman apply for a position of this kind. It seems impossible even to find scrub women or women who go out by the hour to clean. On the other hand, we have no difficulty whatever in getting enough clerical help for our store."

The Home Service office of the Red Cross, where an employment bureau is maintained, has the same experience. Housewives call in numbers every day seeking cooks or hired girls. Two have applied for positions within the past ten days and have been given a list of about a dozen names.

The tables appear to be turned in the hiring of household help. A family usually required the best of references from servants whom they engaged, but nowadays the family must furnish references to the applicant showing that they will be satisfactory employers. Some families temporarily without domestics take their meals at restaurants or hotels.

"We have no difficulty in securing clerks for our store," said J. D. Steele, president of the Pettibone Peabody company. "As a rule there are always about 50 people on our waiting list. Store employment is on a higher plane than ever before and is looked upon as a worthy and well paid profession, and it seems that girls and women are naturally attracted to it as a vocation."

CO-OPERATION AMONG FARMERS IS PAYING

(Special to Post-Crescent)

Madison.—The State Division of Markets is paying a great deal of attention to cooperative organizations among farmers and the effect of the work of these in the marketing of farm produce and the purchase of commodities needed on the farm. In its bi-monthly Market Letter issued today the Division praises the work of the Northwest Produce Company located at Waupaca, whose principal business is the marketing of potatoes but in addition such things as flour, feed, cement, fertilizers, livestock and farm machinery are handled at large savings to the members. The organization has about 250 members, each one having one vote at business meetings. Good business management and loyalty to the purpose of the organization, says the Division of Markets, have made this cooperative society very successful.

SHEBOYGAN GIRL HURT WHEN STRUCK BY AUTO

Sheboygan.—Elizabeth, 6 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roepke, Sheboygan Falls, sustained a fractured thigh when she was struck by an automobile. The little girl had attempted to cross the street and when she saw the approaching car became frightened, stopped and then ran directly in the path of the machine.

BEGS FOR AUTO RIDE; FALLS AND IS KILLED

Maiden Rock.—Sergel, the 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rogers of Trenton township, was killed accidentally when he fell off B. Bengtson's auto truck and was struck on the head by one of the wheels. The Rogers family was moving. The little fellow had begged the truckman for a ride and climbed into the driver's cab. He failed to close the door hard enough to latch it, and leaning against it, fell to the ground.

ZIONISTS CELEBRATE PALESTINE FREEING

ELABORATE PROGRAM IS TO BE PRESENTED AT EAGLE HALL ON SUNDAY, JUNE 6

Freeing of Palestine from Turkish oppression and placing it under a British mandate is to be celebrated by Jewish people of the Fox River valley with appropriate ceremonies Sunday, June 6. About 500 invitations have been sent out to neighboring cities.

A movement has been underway for some time to raise funds in the United States for the rehabilitation of Palestine. Jewish people in Europe and Asia were undergoing persecution and starvation and the plan was therefore inaugurated to make Palestine a home land to which they could migrate and be free. The success of the campaign and the assurance of protection by England has been the source of great rejoicing all over the United States and the Appleton affair is one of a series of such jubilees.

The program is to be held at Eagle hall and is to start at seven o'clock in the evening. There will be a series of entertainment features, followed by a dance. Schaffer's orchestra is to furnish the music. George Lavin is chairman of the committee in charge.

One of the problems connected with the settlement of the Jews in Palestine is that of keeping the land out of speculation. It is proposed to apply the land laws of Moses for that purpose.

SEEK TO PROHIBIT ADULTERATION OF
 WISCONSIN CHEESE

FARMERS APPEAL TO ATTORNEY
 GENERAL TO MAINTAIN
 REPUTATION OF BAD-
 GER PRODUCT

Madison—Action has been started in the court of Waukesha county to prohibit the use of cocoanut oil in the manufacture of cheese. The farmers of the state have appealed to Attorney General Blaine to prohibit this, claiming that the use of cocoanut oil in the making of cheese deteriorates the Wisconsin product.
 A law prohibiting cheese manufactured from skim milk to which there has been added any fat which is foreign to such milk has been on the Wisconsin statute books since 1889.
 About that time, there was an attempt on the part of the cotton seed oil interests to make a so-called filled cheese by the use of cotton seed oil.
 Also at that time certain inferior grades of butter were melted up and run into the skimmed milk for the purpose of filling the cheese where the butter fat had been taken out.
 This matter at that time was run down quite thoroughly and there has been little attempt to make filled cheese until recently. The offending interest now is the cocoanut oil interests. They have a process whereby they take the butter fat from the milk as it comes from the farm. The butter fat is made into butter and sold. The residue of skim milk is then filled with cocoanut oil and a so-called filled skim milk cheese is the result. An effort is being made by the cocoanut oil interests to make this prohibited filled cheese in various parts of the state. Among them is one at Menomonee Falls in Waukesha county, where one of the cheese makers has been arrested for a violation of the law and the case is now pending in the municipal court for the eastern district of Waukesha county. The cocoanut interests are defiant of the state laws, claiming that they have a right under the federal law to sell the product. They rely upon the federal act of June 6, 1896, which provides that manufacturers of filled cheese shall pay $400 for each factory per annum.

During the campaign against the cotton seed oil filled cheese in the 90's, the reputation of Wisconsin cheese in the east and in England and France suffered considerably, at least to the extent that the dealers of those foreign countries appealed to the authorities in the states to protect the grade of cheese that was exported from Wisconsin. The coconut oil interests now fighting for the right to manufacture skim milk cheese filled with cocoanut oil are having the same effect and cheese dealers in the east are already appealing to the people of Wisconsin to prevent this fraud upon the public which will ultimately ruin the reputation of Wisconsin cheese. Wisconsin, being the largest cheese producing state in the union, is vitally interested in the outcome of this campaign against spurious products in imitation of American cheese.

SHEBOYGAN HAS HOME
 FOR WORKING GIRLS

Sheboygan, Wis. — A home for working girls, the first in this city, will be opened here shortly by Mrs.
 J. W. Perry, wife of the pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church.
 The upper floor of the future parsonage will be devoted to this purpose and twenty girls can be accommodated. One room will be for the Traveler's aid, stranded women up to this time being sheltered in Mrs. Perry's home.
 Mrs. Perry, who is the city's foremost practical social worker, has seen need for such a home. Many girls have been attracted here by the high wages paid by the Black Cat Hosiery and fiber furniture plants, only to find that the high cost of room rent and board erases the income.
 Under these conditions four girls in one week returned to their homes in Antigo.
 Breakfast, hot supper, use of laundry and a reception room will increase the advantages offered the girls. Mrs. Perry received her first experience in this line as associate in a girls' home in Lancaster, England.

WEDDING PARTY NEAR
 DEATH IN SMASHUP

Green Bay, Wis.—Seven persons, including Miss Martha Krauing, a bride, and George H. Taylor, groom, and others in their wedding party, barely missed death while riding to church in a motor car when the car skidded into a street curb and turned over on a lawn. The driver of the car was arrested and fined $25 in Police court on a charge of reckless driving.
 Both rear wheels of the car were torn off the machine.

CORN CROPS ARE DAMAGED BY RAIN

Spring Green, Wis.—The storms of Saturday night and Sunday morning did a great amount of crop damage, in this district. The newly planted corn crop suffered the most damage in some places, whole fields being washed out. The rain was so heavy that in almost every locality where the fields are on a grade, the seed was washed out.

RACINE MAN ENDS LIFE
 BY SWALLOWING POISON

Racine, Wis.—All preparations for Sunday dinner in the Home restaurant, 105 Fifth street, had been made by James Quinn, proprietor, when he went to his room on the second floor of the building, and bidding good-by to certain roomers, swallowed the contents of a two ounce vial of carbolic acid.
 Attempts were made to save his life, but he fought them all, only urging that people in the restaurant be not informed of his act, and that all meals be served. His wish was granted.
 Quinn, who was 63 years old, was born at Whitewater, Wis.

LA FOLLETTE MAY
 SWING DELEGATES
 TO SENATOR KNOX

PENNSYLVANIA SENATOR'S CAN-DIDACY IS REGARDED WITH FAVOR BY MANY
 BADGER MEN

Madison, Wis.—While the mystery of the La Follette delegation as regards its presidential choice, still remains unsolved, it would cause no surprise were its votes finally to be given to Senator Philander Knox, Pennsylvania candidate.
 Any development which would bring the La Follette delegation into line for the Pennsylvania statesmen would cause the utmost astonishment in times past, but great political changes have grown out of the war and to these is to be traced the situation which may give Senator Knox the La Follette delegation. It is, of course, predicted that on the first ballot, and possibly for several successive ballots, the Wisconsin delegates will vote for Senator La Follette.

Leaning Toward Knox
 The prediction that Senator Knox is under consideration as the candidate cannot be verified by direct statement, but it is known that a number of the leading delegates regard Knox with considerable favor. One member of the delegation in describing Knox characterized him as a man of liberal views, not intolerant of the opinions of others, representing the American view on the treaty and while not indorsed by labor and while not supported by labor, possibly satisfactory to labor were he to take a stand against the use of the injunction or of military and labor disputes.

In other quarters it is remarked that Senator Knox has attracted favorable notice in some of the eastern so-called liberal and radical magazines and publications whose editorial opinions are in line with those of Senator La Follette. The whole situation appears to be developing new and very favorable consideration of Senator Knox as the candidate whom Senator La Follette will support.

Borah is Mentioned
 Of course there are some others to be taken into account. One of those mentioned is Senator Borah of Idaho, who is suggested as a dark horse.
 Senator Hiram Johnson has his good points, but among those who are very close to Senator La Follette there does not seem to be a great deal of enthusiasm for Johnson.
 In connection with the inclination of the La Follette delegates, the stand of Senator Knox on war issues also deserves to be taken into account.
 Senator Knox has denounced the peace treaty as too harsh upon Germany. He has opposed the League of Nations and it is his resolution which has been sent to the president in the effort to end the war without a treaty.

 Senator Knox is the personal choice and candidate of his colleagues, Senator Boise Penrose, Pennsylvania, Senator Penrose and Senator La Follette have always been on good personal terms in Washington, though up to this time they have not co-operated politically.
